Rajnath Singh in city

'Kharge made poisonous snake remark unable to digest Modi's popularity'

Union Defence Minister Rajnath Singh flanked by MLA S.A. Ramdas and KR BJP candidate T.S. Srivatsa at the public meeting held at Vivekananda Circle in city this morning.

Mysuru, Apr. 29 (RK&BS)- Defence Minister Rajnath Singh today launched a blistering attack on All India Congress Committee President Mallikarjun Kharge for comparing Prime Minister Narendra Modi to a poisonous snake. Speaking at a public meeting organised for Krishnaraja Constituency BJP candidate T.S. Srivatsa at Vivekananda Circle in Mysuru, Singh stated that Kharge made the comparison because the Congress Party is unhappy with Narendra Modi's popularity.

He went on to ask the public whether Modi is truly venomous as Kharge alleges, quoting former Prime Minister Rajiv Gandhi's famous lines on corruption to illustrate how corruption has permeated the system. "Rajiv Gandhi said that if he sends Rs. 10 from Delhi, only Re. 1 reaches the poor. This self-admission showed how corrupt the Congress Government was," Singh charged.

Singh asserted that the BJP-led National Democratic Alliance Government is not only making promises but also implementing them 100 percent. He further stated that if Rajiv Gandhi were in power today, only Rs. 5 crore to Rs. 6 crore would have reached beneficiaries, instead of the Rs. 28 crore directly deposited in Jan Dhan accounts by the NDA Government.

He emphasised that Modi's governance has been corruption-free and that the BJP will not tolerate corruption at the State level.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

Our mind is like a horse, the reins of which are in our control to train it.

A man found an eagle's egg that he placed in his poultry farm. The egg hatched and the little eagle grew up with the chickens and behaved like them — chuckling, cackling, feeding on worms and flapping its wings to rise a few feet above the ground. And, this eagle grew old with the misconception of its identity and limitations. One day, it saw a magnificent looking golden bird in the sky. It glided gracefully and majestically against powerful winds quite effortlessly.

The awestruck eagle asked what that was. A rooster replied, "That's an eagle, the king of birds. The vast, open sky is its domain. Our place is the ground; we're low, earthly chickens."

So, the eagle lived and died a lie as a chicken for that's what he thought and believed it was. We limit ourselves, not realising – we are what we think.

Another story to prove the point: The Japanese General Nabunaga decided to go to war even though he knew that the enemy's army was 10 times the strength of his own. He was sure he would win but noticed that his soldiers were very low on confidence. On the way to the battlefield, they stopped at a shrine to pray. Nabunaga addressed his army saying, "Let me toss a coin to check our luck. If it's head, we'll take it as a sign of impending victory from God. And if it's tail we'll prepare ourselves to lose. Let's have faith in destiny revealing itself." He tossed the coin. It was head. The soldiers went all out to wipe out the enemy.

The next day an aide said to Nabunaga, "No one can change destiny." "Right", said Nabunaga showing him a coin that had heads on both sides. Boosting our confidence is a problem, not winning the battle.

Patch crowned 'beautiful bulldog'

Iowa: Patch, owned by Jennifer Hinton, of Fort Dodge, Iowa, sits on the throne after being crowned the winner of the 44th annual Drake Relays Beautiful Bulldog Contest, on April 24, 2023, in Des Moines, Iowa. The pageant kicks off the Drake Relays festivities at Drake University where a bulldog is the mascot.

The 2-year-old English bulldog beat out 28 other contestants from six States Monday night to win the top prize.

Patch's entry seemed to get a boost when she carefully ambled through a hoop on the runway, bringing cheers from a crowd of spectators. Her owners, Jennifer Hinton and Joel Kornder of Johnston, Iowa, said they had worked on the hoop routine for months ahead of the competition.

Patch is a rescue dog and was among nine rescues who competed.

24-eyed jellyfish!

Hong Kong: A newly discovered species of jellyfish is in the same family as the most venomous marine creature in the world, scientists have found.

The previously unknown creature, which carries a highly dangerous sting, was discovered in a muddy pond by scientists at Hong Kong's Mai Po Reserve. It has three tentacles, a transparent body less than an inch long and, most distinctively, a total of 24 eyes separated into four groups of six.

These eyes all perform vital different functions and are located inside its sensory organs, according to researchers from Hong Kong Baptist University. While two of them have lenses that "enable image-forming", the other four appear only able to sense light.

Professor Qiu from the Department of Biology at HKBU explained: "Each group of six eyes is located inside a sensory depression called a rhopalium on each side of the bell. "In each group of eyes, the researchers believe that two of them have lenses that enable image-forming, while the other four can only sense light."

"The process of setting the EVMs to be used in the booths of Chamaraja and Narasimharaja Constituencies has begun and the other Constituencies will be taken up in the due course," he added.

VOICE OF THE READER

Can MCC fix this stench problem?

Sir,

This is to bring to the notice of Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) Commissioner on how a citizen struggles to get the due services from the local body.

A UGD pipe cracked during a work by MCC on sixth main Subhashnagar, next to house no. 47 and is overflowing into the storm water drain, causing unbearable stench and mosquito menace.

The issue was continuously followed up with the Corporator and MCC Engineer only to get empty assurances and eye-washing visits.

We tried to reach out to MCC through e-mail, but in vain.

I wonder what else, as a common citizen, one has to do to get such serious things fixed?

Rs. 10 crore worth illegal liquor, cash seized in Mysuru

Liquor seized in all 11 Constituencies; Cash not seized in Nanjangud & Narasimharaja segments

Mysuru, Apr. 29 (SBD&BCT)- During election campaigns, political parties try to lure voters by offering them various incentives such as cash, freebies or liquor.

To prevent such practices, the Election Commission conducts raids and seizures of cash, freebies and liquor used to bribe voters. The Commission has also set up special flying squads and static surveillance teams to check the illegal distribution of cash, freebies, liquor and other items.

In the Mysuru district, illegal liquor of more than Rs. 8 crore and unaccounted cash worth more than Rs. 2 crore have been seized. Addressing reporters yesterday at his office on the effective implementation of the Model Code of Conduct, Deputy Commissioner (DC) Dr. K.V. cVIGIL mobile application

Pointing out that increased citizen participation in enforcing the Code of Conduct has also helped, the DC said that many complaints have been received through the cVIGIL mobile application.

Most of the cases pertain to unauthorised banners with photographs of politicians installed in public places. The cVIGIL app has been launched to report violations of the Model Code of Conduct and any complaints received will be immediately transferred to the respective Constituency. Later, a team will visit and investigate the violation.

The app has been designed so that the public can easily access it. In the app, people can upload a violation that is occurring nearby. They can upload photos, videos and audio clips. In all, over 120 complaints have been registered through the app in the Mysuru district, the DC added.

Special booths

Dr. Rajendra said that 55 Sakhi Booths, 11 booths especially meant for People with Disabilities (PwD), 11 young voters booths, 1 theme-based booth and 10 ethnic booths have been set up with a special focus on wooing people to vote.

"In the theme-based and ethnic booths, special attention has been given to the tradition, culture and landmarks of Mysuru like Mysore Palace, Lalitha Mahal Palace, Jaganmohan Palace and taluk specialities. On the polling day, even the officers will wear the traditional dresses at the special booths and at booths set up for tribals," he added.

Chamarajanagar MP Sreenivasa Prasad takes potshot at Siddharamaiah

Mysuru, Apr. 29 (MTY&DM)- Charging senior Congress leader and former Chief Minister Siddharamaiah of letting loose his tongue in respect of his margin of victory in the forthcoming Assembly polls from Varuna, Chamarajanagar MP and senior BJP leader V. Sreenivasa Prasad wondered whether it is possible for Siddharamaiah to win by a margin of 1 lakh votes as claimed by him.

Prasad

Addressing a press meet at BJP office in Chamarajapuram on Thursday, Prasad reminded Siddharamaiah who was beaming with confidence of a landslide victory in Chamundeshwari Constituency in the 2018 polls, that he lost the polls by a huge margin of 36,000 votes. Like Siddharamaiah, former Minister Dr. H.C. Mahadevappa too was audacious and he also lost the 2018 polls from T. Narasipur by a big margin of 29,000 votes, he noted.

Asserting that the BJP lost the 2018 polls in Varuna due to the confusions over the party candidate, he maintained that Housing Minister V. Somanna who is contesting from Varuna would win this time as he is making a lot of efforts to seal the seat for the BJP.

Noting that the BJP has fielded new faces in 8 of the 11 Assembly segments of the district, barring Chamaraja, Narasimharaja and Nanjangud, he said that the BJP stands a good chance of winning many seats in the district this time as the party's rural base has grown bigger. He further said that Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai would surely win as he is humble in nature and not arrogant like many Congress leaders.

Prasad also said that Priyanka Gandhi's campaign in the State would make little difference as the BJP is all set to win the May 10 polls.

Commenting on JD(S) decision of supporting Congress candidate in Nanjangud, Prasad said that the JD(S) was enacting a drama of sorts. Wanting to know why the JD(S) has fielded its candidate in Varuna when it has supported the Congress in Nanjangud, he said that this was nothing but a political gimmick of the regional party. He also took potshot at KPCC President D.K. Shivakumar's claims that the Congress would win 150 seats and form the next Government.

Mayor Shivakumar, BJP leaders H.G. Giridhar, Vasanthkumar, S. Jaya Prakash and others were present at the press meet.

Vote from Home in 11 Mysuru seats begins

Elderly women vote during the 'Vote from Home' initiative at Konanapura Palya in Varuna this morning. Picture extreme right shows a staff video-graphing the voting process at Alagudu.

Mysuru, Apr. 29 (BCT)- Starting today (Apr. 29) till May 6, people aged above 80 and Persons with Disabilities (PwD) can choose the 'Vote from Home' option, a first-of-its-kind initiative launched by the Election Commission in Karnataka.

In Mysuru, out of 85,514 senior citizens aged 80 years and above and 30,883 PwDs, only 2,407 voters aged 80 years and above and 402 voters with disabilities opted for the 'Vote from Home' option and they have submitted 12D forms to the election authorities.

According to reports reaching Star of Mysore, all those elders who have registered for the initiative, are enthusiastically participating in the electoral process. The names and the details of all those who voted will be provided to all political parties once the process is completed, officials said.

In Mysuru, 135 teams have been constituted to execute the task and they have been assigned 158 routes in all 11 Constituencies. The Election Commission has clarified that this voting method is only applicable to people who are either confined to their homes or suffering from age-related ailments.

Separate polling staff have been picked for this process and each team will have five staffers, including two polling officials, one Cop and one videographer to record the entire proceeding. The Election Commission has already begun the process of intimating voters about the polling date via SMS.

On entering voters' houses, staff will check their ID, obtain a declaration and hand over a ballot paper. They will have to cast their vote inside a secret compartment and drop it in an envelope.

If the voter is not available due to any emergency, the team will reschedule the visit. If the voter is not available during the second visit, he/she will lose the chance to vote. If the voters fail to avail of the option, they cannot vote further, including on May 10.

In addition to this, service voters and essential services category voters Absentee Voters in Essential Services (AVES) will also be provided with the postal ballot facility. The postal ballot sent to them electronically can be downloaded using a link via the ETPBS system, and all ballots received by 8 am on May 13 will be considered for counting.

This initiative will ensure that every citizen can participate in the democratic process, even if they are unable to leave their homes.

Voters will support BJP for Modi's rule: Meenakshi Lekhi

Union Minister of State For External Affairs Meenakshi Lekhi addressing media at BJP Media Centre in Chamarajapuram in city yesterday as City BJP Media Convener Cable Mahesh, Chairman of Karnataka Exhibition Authority (KEA) Mirle Srinivas Gowda, BJP leader S.K. Dinesh and District Spokesperson Dr. K. Vasanth Kumar look on.

Mysuru, Apr. 29 (BS)- Union Minister of State for External Affairs Minister Meenakshi Lekhi has said that the exit of leaders from BJP won't dent the prospects of the party in upcoming elections on May 10.

Addressing media persons at BJP Media Centre at Chamarajapuram here yesterday, Lekhi said, "By fielding 72 new faces in the election, it won't affect the results either, as people will choose the candidates, considering the better administration of Prime Minister Narendra Modi. Besides, the party workers have been sweating hard at booth level for the victory of candidates."

With India completing 100 years of Independence in next 25 years, Modi has big plans to create Amrith Kaal in the country including Karnataka, said Lekhi.

There is also nothing wrong in seeking votes in Modi's name, as "It is Modi's charisma, hard work and leadership which has brought benefits to Karnataka," she said.

Congress leaders Sonia Gandhi and her son-in-law Robert Vadra, son Rahul Gandhi, KPCC President D.K. Shivakumar and several other leaders are all on bail in one or the other case. They don't have any moral rights to level false allegations of 40% commission against BJP Government in the State, without producing any documents in support of their allegations, added Lekhi.

Sudan war

On the people from the State, especially from Hunsur in Mysuru, stuck in civil war hit Sudan, Lekhi said: "Under 'Operation Kaveri' we have already brought home several Indians in two phases from Sudan, while some more people will be brought back in third phase."

Amit Shah holds Road Show in Madikeri

The one-kilometre road show began at Chowdeshwari Temple Circle and ended at Squadron Leader Ajjamada B. Devaiah Circle in the town.

Chamundeshwari BJP candidate meets media

Kaveesh Gowda

Mysuru, Apr. 29 (PM&DM)- Stating that his priority is comprehensive development of Chamundeshwari Assembly Constituency, BJP candidate Kaveesh Gowda expressed confidence of the support of voters for fulfilling his goals for the Constituency.

He was speaking at an interaction meet with Chamundeshwari candidates organised by Mysuru District Journalists Association (MDJA) here this morning.

Noting that many villages in-Chamundeshwari are still facing drinking water problems, Kaveesh listed out his tasks for the Constituency which included drinking water from KRS and Kabini and upgradation of Government schools, among others.

Replying to a question if incumbent MLA JD(S) G.T. Devegowda had failed in development works, he said he would not say that, but many works are pending for long.

Pointing out that taking up development works at one place may have an adverse bearing in another village, he stressed on the need for scientific execution of projects and plans so that such problems do not arise in the future.

"The Constituency has many industries and there is a need for getting employment for locals. The Constituency is a vegetable growing hub and as such there is an urgent need for setting up Food Processing Units and Storage Units, which will be of much help to the farmers", he said.

Commenting on the allegations that Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha has confined himself to high stakes Varuna Constituency where Housing Minister V. Somanna is taking on Congress stalwart Siddharamaiah, ignoring Chamundeshwari, Kaveesh said that the BJP has constituted a Campaign Committee and the MP is canvassing for the party as per schedule. "There is still 10 days to go for public campaigning to end and I am very hopeful that MP Simha will campaign for me too ", Kaveesh added.

"My opponents may be old war horses and strong contenders, but I have no worries in this regard. I am going directly to the people and educating them on the good works done by PM Narendra Modi, the Union and State Governments. I have full confidence that the people will vote for me taking into account development works of the BJP Government", he said adding that the people of the Constituency are seeking a change this time.

On his joining BJP, Kaveesh said that he was greatly inspired by the works of Modi. Noting that the BJP has given ticket many young candidates and new faces, Kaveesh said that he takes pride in the fact that he is one among them. Replying to another question on why he had chosen the BJP while his father Vasu, a former MLA is a staunch Congressman, Kaveesh said he was never influenced by the policies, ideology or programmes of Congress. He had worked with his father in politics for more than 10 years, he reiterated that the Congress had failed to make an impact or impression on him.

Two other prominent candidates of Chamundeshwari — MLA G.T. Devegowda of JD(S) and Mavinahalli Siddegowda of Congress, failed to turn up.

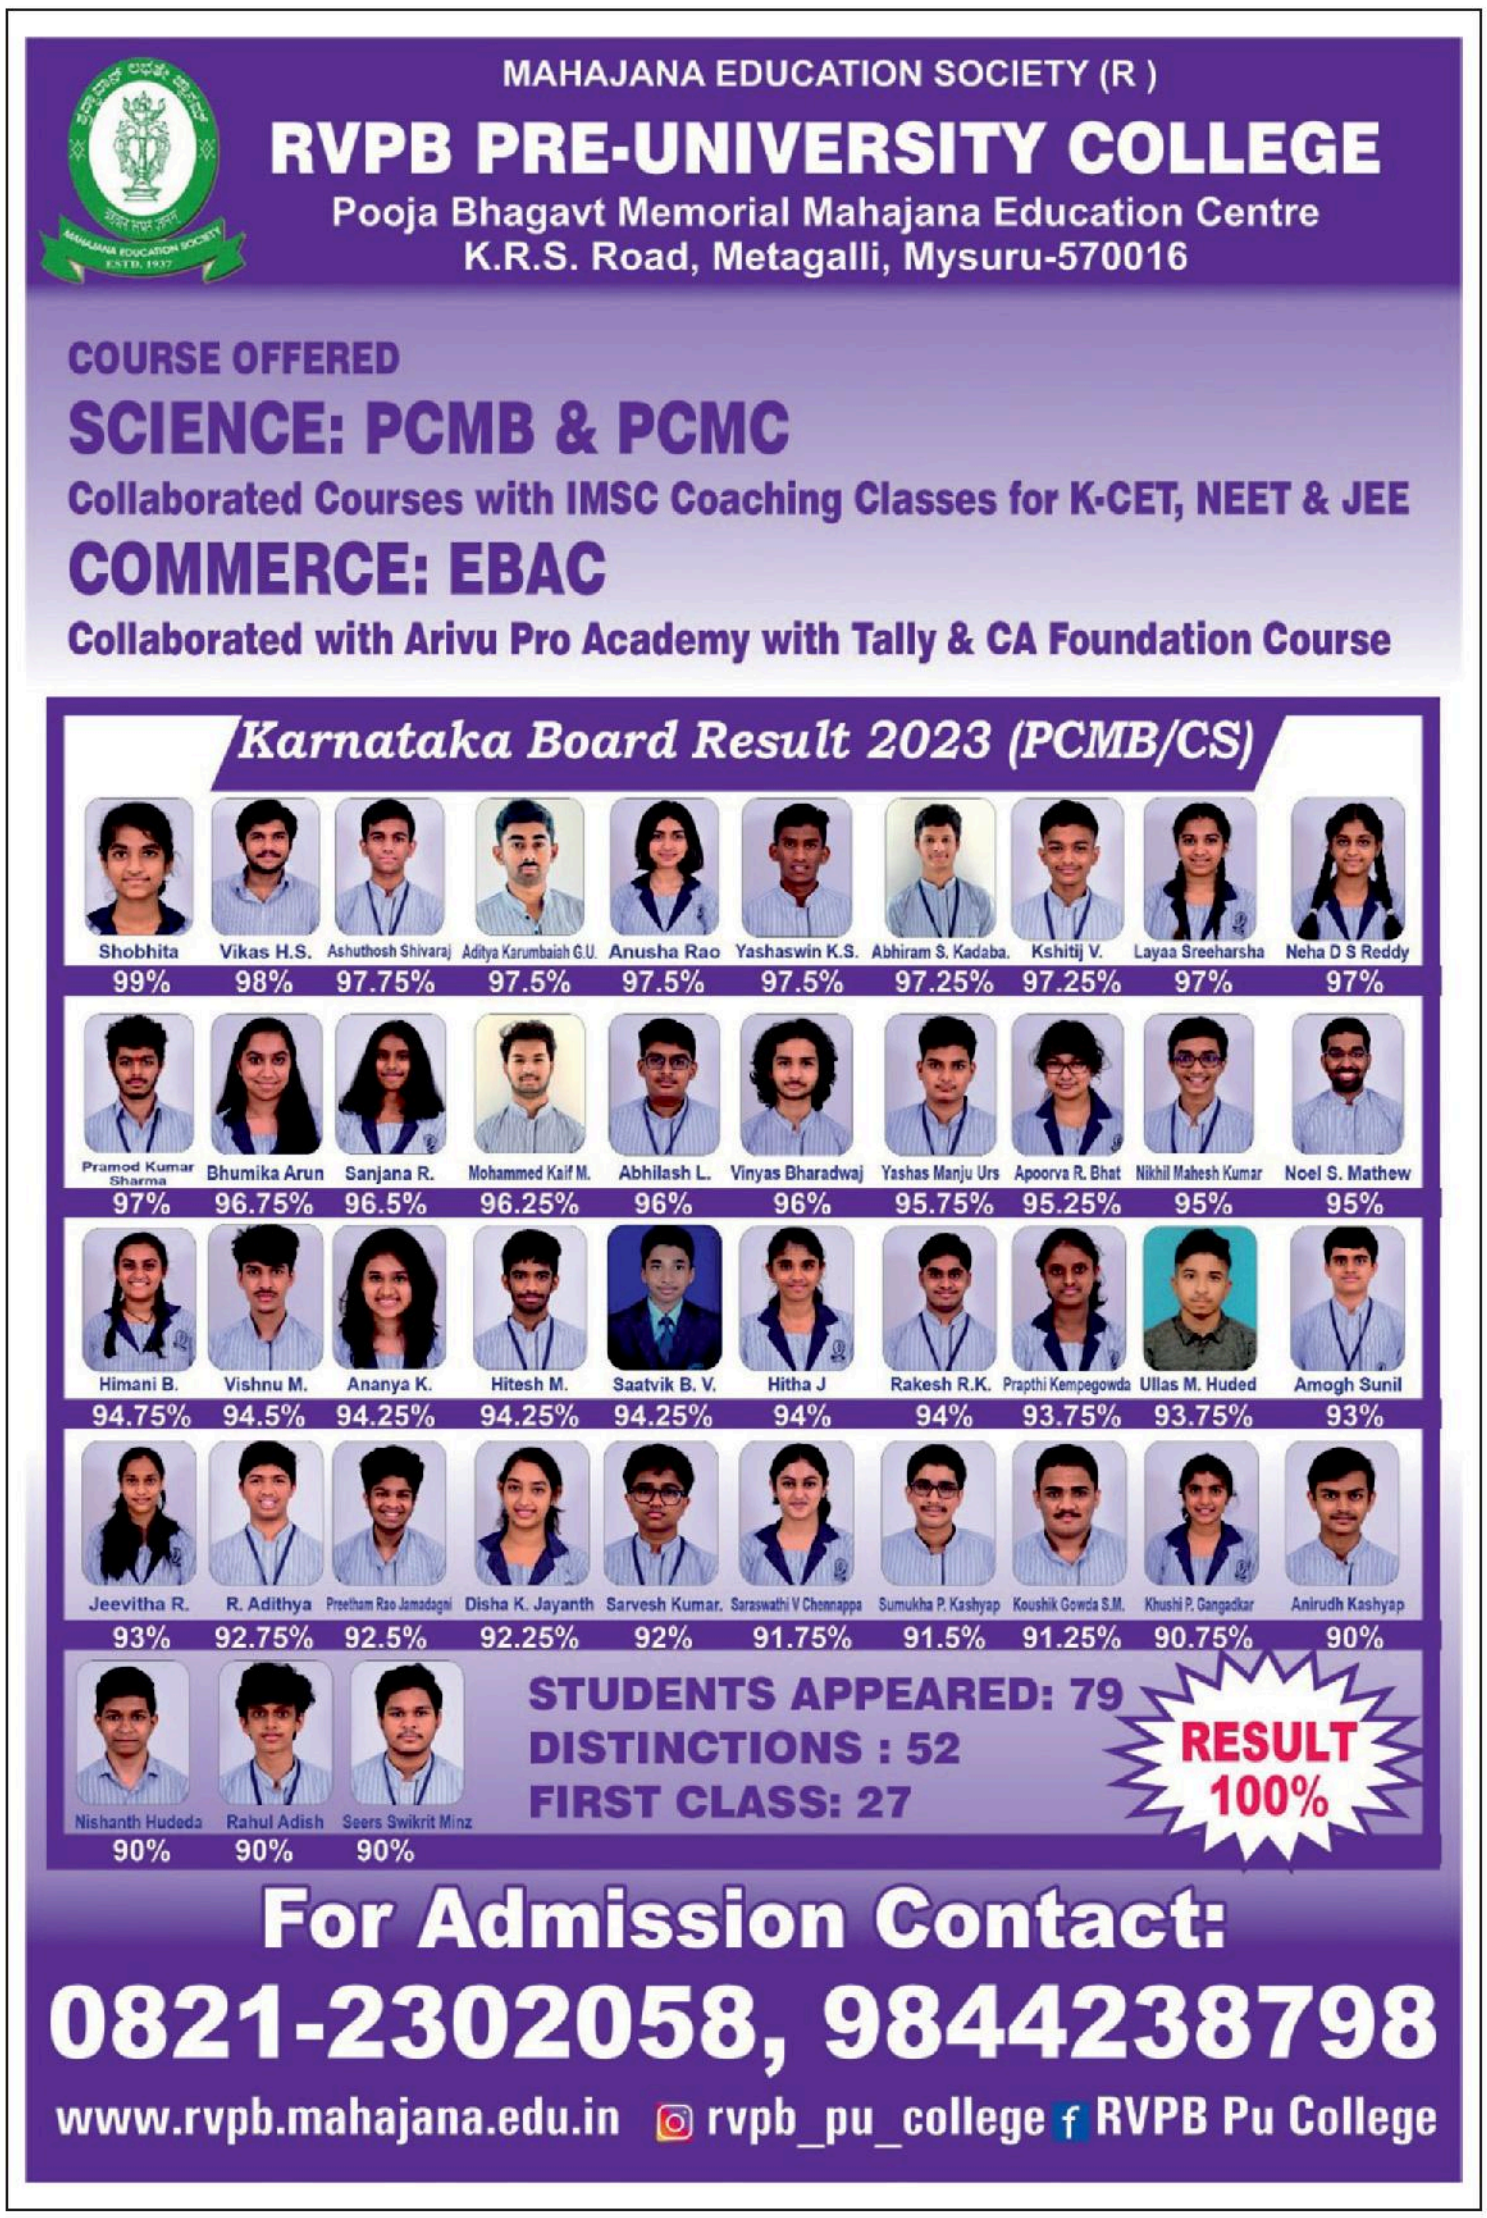
Rajnath Singh appealed to the public to give an absolute majority to BJP to form the government in the State, stating that the party has fielded a grassroots-level worker in T.S. Srivatsa.

Over 1,500 seats had been arranged for the public address, with many people of all ages in attendance.

The Defence Minister arrived in Mysuru from New Delhi on a special flight and travelled to rally venue by road amid security by black cat commandos.

After meeting Suttur Seer Sri Shivarathri Deshikendra Swamiji at Suttur Mutt near Chamundi Hill and having lunch, Singh is expected to fly by chopper from Lalitha Mahal helipad to Kothathi in Srirangapatna, Mandya district, to address a public meeting.



Tribal booths to be a big draw on May 10 polling day

Mysuru, Apr. 29 (BCT)- If pink polling booths are all set to be a big draw on the May 10 Assembly election by pulling the maximum number of women voters including the young and enthusiastic first-time lady voters, ethnic booths designed like tribal hamlets with colours, bamboo and wooden art pieces in remote locations of the district are sure to attract the tribal population, inducing them to exercise their franchise.

Mysuru (Hunsur, Periyapatna, Nanjangud and H.D. Kote), Kodagu and Chamarajanagar form the hub of tribal communities in the Old Mysuru region and the District Administration has drawn up plans to make voting tribal-friendly and attractive at the same time.

The role of SVEEP (Systematic Voters' Education and Electoral Participation) in this election is huge as it is the one which has taken many initiatives to attract the voters to the booth and increase their turnout. The aim of setting up such booths was to attract tribals, who seldom vote and get busy with their routine work, to vote.

Select Ashram Schools located in remote forest areas have already been painted with typical colours used by the communities and are decked with baskets and mats woven by them using a fibre made from plants and bamboo. These ethnic booths have coconut fronds woven and neatly arranged inside.

This apart, artefacts that indicate a distinct tribal flavour are also placed inside the booths. These booths will have all the basic amenities such as drinking water, sanitation, a primary medical treatment room, etc.

For instance, the ethnic booth 57 set up at Basavanagari Haadi Government Tribal Ashram School at H.D. Kote has been the cynosure of all eyes, conveying the message of mandatory voting. The common complaint of tribals is that they have only become vote banks for political parties and the elected governments and successive MLAs/ MPs have been apathetic to the implementation of the provisions of the Forest Rights Act.

"This time, we are asking them for full participation in the electoral process so that their concerns and demands are addressed. We are aiming for 100 percent voting and to achieve this goal, we are transforming tribal-dominated booths into model booths by decorating or setting up the polling station on the lines of tribal homes to attract and encourage polling," officials said.

MLA Ramdas' move is a model to others: State BJP Chief

Mysuru, Apr. 29 (MK&DM)- Maintaining that KR Constituency BJP MLA S.A.Ramdas' development works and activities is a model to others, State BJP President Nalin Kumar Kateel said that Ramdas has set an example to fellow party workers by continuing to work for the party's organisation even though he was denied the party ticket.

Addressing KR Constituency BJP workers at Samrat Kalyana Mantap in Kuvempunagar here yesterday, he asserted that the BJP has given party tickets to new faces in order to brew new leadership. Kateel said that Ramdas has chosen to work for the party in accordance with the party's experiment of fielding new faces.

Noting that the party workers have already come to terms with the new experiment, he said that Ramdas' move is very clear as he has been actively engaged in ensuring the victory of BJP candidate T.S. Srivatsa, who is being fielded for the first time.

MLA Ramdas, in his address, said he was in a piquant situation, having contested from KR six times with four victories in his bag. Pointing out that he had hoped to win by a margin of 50,000 votes this time, he said all his calculations have gone awry now. "But as a disciplined soldier of the BJP, I will try hard to ensure the victory of Srivatsa," he said adding that the BJP would retain power in the State.

KR Constituency BJP candidate T.S. Srivatsa, BJP State Vice-President M. Rajendra, Delhi BJP Vice-President Rajiv Babbar, Mysuru Mayor Shivakumar, Deputy Mayor Dr. G. Roopa, leaders Vadivelu, H.G. Giridhar, Somasundar and others were present.

Karnataka leads in implementation of Central Projects: BJP Spokesperson

Mysuru, Apr. 29 (SPN&DM)- Asserting that Karnataka leads other States in the implementation of Central Government Projects, BJP National Spokesperson Gopalkrishna Agarwal exuded confidence that the party would retain power in the State.

Addressing a press meet at the Party Office in Chamarajapuram here yesterday, Agarwal said that 94 percent of Karnataka beneficiaries of Kisan Samman scheme have received money. But non-BJP ruled States such as Kerala, Tamil Nadu and West Bengal have been lagging far behind, which is the best example of why Karnataka needs a double-engine Government.

Continuing, Agarwal said that the Modi-led Government has granted Rs.28 lakh crore funds for social welfare programmes over the past 9 years, as compared to just Rs.4 lakh crore given by the Congress headed UPA Government in its 10 years of rule. Noting that Karnataka has achieved 65 percent of the target under Harghar Jal Scheme aimed at providing potable drinking water to every household, he said Bengaluru, which is an IT and BT hub, has attracted 48 percent of FDI.

Maintaining that it is PM Modi's able leadership that has made India an economically powerful country, he said that the Investor-friendly and ease of doing business initiatives have taken the country to higher levels in respect of International trade.

Contending that the Modi Government has plugged the leakage of money in administration and projects, Agarwal asserted that Modi's transparent administration has been an inspiration for the country's population and as such the BJP continues to be the most favoured party of the electorate.

Claiming that it was the UPA Government which introduced the NPS (New Pension Scheme) in 2004, which has become the bone of contention, he said that the Congress is now making unnecessary issue, which is nothing but a farce.

Charging the Congress of failing to give a pro-people administration in its 65-years rule, he cited a statement of Rajiv Gandhi, who as Prime Minister had said that hardly 15 paise of a rupee reached the targeted beneficiary while 85 percent was going waste on account of pilferage. The digital technology promoted by Modi-led Union Government had largely helped in plugging loopholes and pilferage in the implementation of schemes and plans, he added.

Long weekend: Tourists throng Mysuru

A long weekend — tomorrow Sunday and May Day holiday on Monday — has resulted in the arrival of thousands of tourists to Mysuru. Over 95 percent of the hotels, resorts and other accommodations have been booked in advance and according to the hospitality industry sources, there will be 100 percent bookings by today evening. However, tourist movement is likely to be hit due to traffic restrictions tomorrow in view of Prime Minister Narendra Modi's visit. Heavy rush of tourists was seen in front of the Mysuru Zoo this morning.
